Report on Bootcamp - Role of JavaScript on Web App Development

Date of event : 09-10 June, 2025

Semester: 2 Sem students of CSE, ISE, AIML

No. of Students Participation: 20

Resource Person : Nagaraj. A, Professor of Practice, Dept of CSE

Hands on Training was conducted for the 2 Semester students of CSE, ISE and AIML. Students were chosen from IntellectX group, on First Come First Served basis.

Practical exposure was given to the students about how to develop solutions for real world problems using JavaScript. Google Map JavaScript API was explored. Students have given very good feedback about the program. Students have requested the institution to conduct more such events.

We thank the Heads of Dept of CSE, ISE and AIML for helping us to conduct this event.

We thank HOD-Maths and HOD-CHE for spreading awareness about these programs among the students and helping us to schedule this event.

We thank Prof. Akhilesh S Narayan, TPO, JIT and Mr. Susheel, Executive – Placement for helping in conducting this event.

We thank Principal and Management for encouraging us to conduct this event.

This report is prepared by Prof. Nagaraj A, Professor of Practice, Dept of CSE.
