INTRODUCTION

1. Kargil Vijay Diwas was commemorated on 05th August 2025 at Jyothy Institute of Technology, Thataguni, Bengaluru, with deep respect, pride, and patriotic spirit. The event was organized to honor the supreme sacrifice, courage, and dedication of the Indian Armed Forces during the Kargil War, while creating awareness among students about the significance of this historic victory. The observance aimed to instill national pride and respect for the armed forces.
2. The program was conducted in association with the Param History Centre, which played an important role in presenting historical perspectives related to the Kargil War. Their involvement helped bridge the gap between history and present-day understanding, enabling students to appreciate the strategic and historical importance of India's military operations.
3. The event formally commenced with a piloting ceremony, during which the dignitaries were received and escorted with due protocol. Following this, students, faculty members, and NCC cadets assembled in the auditorium, which was filled with a sense of discipline, respect, and reverence. The orderly gathering reflected the seriousness and importance of the occasion.
4. The program began with an introductory address, outlining the significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas and explaining the objectives of the event. This was followed by the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, symbolizing knowledge, sacrifice, and remembrance of the brave soldiers who laid down their lives in service of the nation.
5. The event was graced by the Chief Guest, Wing Commander B. S. Sudarshan (Ex-Indian Air Force), along with faculty members, who delivered insightful and motivational speeches. While the main focus remained on Kargil Vijay Diwas, special emphasis was placed on Operation Sindoor, which formed the central theme of discussion. The speakers elaborated on its background, execution, and strategic significance, providing participants with a deeper understanding of military operations and national security.
6. The program concluded with a group photograph, bringing together the chief guest, faculty members, NCC cadets, and students.

PLANNING AND PREPARATION

7. Permission and Approval: Prior permission was obtained from the institute authorities to organize the observance of Kargil Vijay Diwas, including approval for the use of the auditorium and other facilities.
8. Coordination with Param History Centre: Coordination was carried out with the Param History Centre to plan the content and historical focus of the program, especially the discussion on Operation Sindoor.
9. Guest Invitation and Coordination: The Chief Guest, Wing Commander B. S. Sudarshan (Ex-Indian Air Force), was formally invited, and arrangements were made for his reception, piloting, and seating.
10. Event Schedule Planning: A detailed event schedule was prepared, outlining the sequence of activities such as piloting, gathering in the auditorium, introduction, lamp lighting, speeches, and group photography.
